Statement of Accomplishment

December 31, 2011

Dear Riccardo Novelli (riccardo.nov@gmail.com),

Congratulations! You have successfully completed the online Machine Learning course (ml-class.org), offered October through December, 2011. To successfully complete this online course, students were required to watch lectures, complete review questions, and work through programming exercises. Your score on these components were as follows:

Review Questions: 80 out of a maximum of 80

Programming Exercises: 800 out of a maximum of 800

Sincerely,

Andrew Ng
